A reprint of an Editorial from the Janesville Masonic Bulletin dated September 1964 recently found at the Masonic Center. Larry Preston, Secretary

I do not choose to be a common Mason.

It is my right to be uncommon.

I seek the opportunity to spread further light in Masonry.

I do not wish to be just a member and bask in other's glory.

I want to take the calculated risk, to dream and maybe build a better edifice.

The road is rough, but from it we learn a lesson which can be found no other place.

I would not trade my Masonic heritage and the dignity therein contained, for all the glamour of the tinsel world.

It is my heritage to stand erect, proud that I have been a Mason and reflect with joy, and boldly say, "This I have done in my Masonic career."

To fail or to succeed, whichever the case may be, I refuse to be an inactive Mason.

Because my energies, too, might press forward the Masonic tradition.

I prefer the challenge of seeking out the Masonic background, rather than reading what others do.
